

ORGANIZATIONAL RESOURCES

CSG West is one of 4 regions of the Council of State Governments that form part of a national community of states. CSG's regional and national structure invites focused participation from members on a more intimate, regional level while also providing a national platform to exchange ideas and information access a myriad of national policy research, and to stay abreast of national trends and developments in Washington, D.C. impacting state governments.

CSG WEST STAFF serves as an extension of legislative staff through research, analysis, and providing resource connections. Please reach if we can help you with anything. You can reach us at csgw@csg.org or (916) 553-4423.

WESTRAIN provides in-state training for legislators and staff on various professional development topics. Expert trainers offer nonpartisan perspectives and hands-on instruction in communication, time management, negotiation and consensus-building, media relations, conflict resolution, and ethics. Training is available upon request and with the approval of legislative leaders.

The CENTER OF INNOVATION provides objective, in-depth analysis and technical assistance on the states' critical issues, including occupational licensing, workforce development, election policy, and health and human services policy.

The NATIONAL CENTER FOR INTERSTATE COMPACTS assists states in developing interstate compacts, promoting multi-state problem-solving. Search the more than 200 interstate compacts in effect today by state, name, or year.

The JUSTICE CENTER serves to promote effective, data-driven practices and solutions where the criminal justice system intersects with other disciplines, such as public health and education.

The CSG STATE RECOVERY RESOURCE CENTER provides an ongoing analysis of the American Rescue Plan (ARP) Act of 2021, which impacts states in their budgets and specific policies. The Center also provides other resources that state leaders can use to inform state economic and civic recovery.

The BOOK OF THE STATES is a state government encyclopedia featuring easy-to-read summaries, tables, and charts that serve as an invaluable reference tool that has withstood the test of time.

SHARED STATE LEGISLATION \(SSL\) shares innovations in state policy and assists state leaders in drafting policies that would benefit their communities; SSL is curated and disseminated by a bipartisan committee of state leaders to identify topics of significant interest to the states.
